

THIS COPY IS FOR YOUR PERSONAL, NON-COMMERCIAL USE ONLY. You can order presentation-ready copies for distribution to your colleagues, clients or customers by using the "Reprints" tool bar against any article. Order a reprint of this article now.

Printed on page D3

Good deeds

Published: Monday, May 24, 2010 at 2:00 a.m.

Palmetto attorney Scott Kallins of Kallins, Little and Delgado has been recognized by PALS Partners in Education as the 2009-2010 Outstanding Business Partner. Kallins has coached boys' lacrosse at the Sarasota Military Academy for the past five years. He is past chairman of the Manatee County YMCA. His firm has donated more than $50,000 toward educating local youths.

Kallins

The Florida Department of Elder Affairs recently recognized its most outstanding volunteers across the state. More than 50 individuals, including several from Sarasota County, were honored during the 14th Annual Golden Choices celebration. To learn about opportunities to volunteer with seniors, visit the department's website at elderaffairs.state.fl.us.

First Step recently held its annual Volunteer Appreciation Reception as part of National Volunteer Month. Nearly 100 volunteers were honored for donating more than 3,000 hours of service to First Step of Sarasota, which provides substance abuse treatment and recovery programs.

This story appeared in print on page D3

Copyright © 2010 HeraldTribune.com — All rights reserved. Restricted use only.